

U.S. Small Business Administration

Biography

Franklin J. Sciortino, a native of Buffalo, New York He is a graduate of Canisius College.

56 years ago, he joined the U.S. Small Business Administration where he held a variety of financial management positions. He was named branch manager in April 1975. Under his leadership and guidance, the Buffalo Office gained its own lending authority and can offer any Agency service. On April 19, 1990, he was named District Director of the newly designated Buffalo District Office which has a Branch office in Rochester, New York.